Dear Sir:

The two non-patent literature (NPL) documents listed in the accompanying IDS form PTO/SB/08a are opposition (Petition for Invalidation) papers filed by third parties in TW Patent Application No. 093105958, which is a counterpart application of the instant U.S. patent application. The applicant and the undersigned attorney are not in possession, custody, or control of written English-language translations of these NPL documents, nor are such translations readily available to them. For each listed NPL document (both of which are in Chinese), the undersigned attorney provides a concise explanation of its relevance below. The undersigned attorney is fluent in Chinese and has reviewed these documents.

NPL #1: Petition for invalidation of TW Patent Application No. 093105958, submitted to the Taiwan Intellectual Property Office on Sept. 11, 2007 by Chienhe Elec. Co., Ltd. (approximate translation). It cites US6324605 and US6345323 as references, and argues that claims of the counterpart TW application are invalid over these references.

NPL #2: Petition for invalidation of TW Patent Application No. 093105958, submitted to the Taiwan Intellectual Property Office on June 30, 2008 by Weifeng Technology Co., Ltd. (approximate translation). It cites US2003/0041209 and US6539418 as references, and argues that claims of the counterpart TW application are invalid over these references.

If there are any fees due in connection with the filing of this response or deficient in fees, please charge the fees to our Deposit Account No. 50-3531.

Respectfully submitted,
